National Hispanic Scholar

One Jesuit senior was accepted by The National Hispanic Recognition Program. Established in 1983 by the College Board, this program provides national recognition for Hispanic students based on their PSAT scores and identifies them for post secondary institutions.

Santiago Rodriguez, son of Dr. Jaime A. Rodriguez and Dr. Marta C. Rodriguez. He attended Christian Brothers School in New Orleans.

National Achievement Semi-finalist

One Jesuit senior received recognition in The National Achievement Scholarship Program, an academic competition established in 1964 to acknowledge outstanding African-American high school students. African-American students can qualify for recognition and be honored as semi-finalists or finalists in both the National Merit Program and the National Achievement Program, but can receive only one monetary award from the NMSC.

Jesuit High School's National Merit Semi-finalists from the Class of 2007

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) recognized 32 seniors from Jesuit High School as semi-finalists in the annual Merit Scholarship Competition. No other high school in Louisiana boasted as many semi-finalists as these 32 seniors from the Class of 2007. This year's selection index was 209, which is the average score in Louisiana. However, our honorees from the Class of 2007 had a mean score of 222, a reflection of the academic excellence for which Jesuit is traditionally renowned. The faculty and administration of Jesuit High School extend their congratulations to each student on his significant achievement.
